

Position Summary:

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Department of Sociology invites applications for a tenured full professor to fill the John Shelton Reed Distinguished Chair, to start July 1, 2012. Preference will be given to candidates with a strong research record who are playing a leadership role in the discipline. Successful candidates must exhibit strong commitment to research and publication, as well as teaching and mentoring of graduate students.

Education Requirements:

PhD in sociology

Qualifications and Experience:

We are seeking a leading scholar and teacher at the rank of full professor whose work focuses on the sociological study of the American South as a region. The successful candidate will be expected to play important leadership roles in advancing southern studies in the College of Arts and Sciences and the Department of Sociology.

Proposed Start Date for Position:

07/01/2012

Special Instructions:

Applicants must apply online at <http://jobs.unc.edu/2501736>. Please attach curriculum vitae and samples of recent papers and published work. Also, four letters of recommendation should be mailed to:

John Shelton Reed Professor Search
Department of Sociology
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
155 Hamilton Hall, CB # 3210
Chapel Hill, NC 27599-3210.

Applications will be considered until the position is filled, but review of applications will begin on November 1, 2011. Women and minorities are strongly encouraged to apply. The University of North Carolina is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Contact:

If you experience any problems accessing the system or have questions about the application process, please contact the University's Equal Employment Opportunity Office at (919) 966-3576 or send an email to equalopportunity@unc.edu.

If you have any questions about the job requirements or the hiring department, please contact Sandy Wilcox, Department Manager, 919-962-8915, swilcox@email.unc.edu.