CENSUS SERVICES

The Census Bureau has just issued a new National Clearinghouse for Census Data Services, which includes a list of organizations that will provide assistance in obtaining Census Bureau data or using Census Bureau products. Organizations are listed by state.

The Census Bureau has also released a report entitled, 1990 Decennial Census of Population and Housing -- Tabulation and Publication Program, which describes the redesigned census tabulation and publication program and contains brief descriptions of all 1990 data products. This report also contains a preliminary schedule of when specific products are likely to become available.

To obtain a copy of either of the publications mentioned above write to the Data User Services Division, U.S. Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233. Or call DUSD at (301) 763 4100.

FAME AND FORTUNE

The University of Maryland, College Park, announces an opening for a tenure-track position as an Assistant Professor of Sociology and Faculty Associate in the Center on Population, Gender and Social Inequity. A Ph.D. is required. Specialization in Demography with an emphasis on development and gender is desired. Teaching experience is helpful, but the primary interest is in someone with potential for conducting publishable research and obtaining external funding. Letters of application, vitae, and the names of three references (no letters please) should be sent to: Professor Harriet Presser, Demography Search Committee, Department of Sociology, University of Maryland, College Park, MD. 20742. For best consideration, materials should be received by November 1. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

CONFERENCES

The Census Bureau's 1990 Annual research Conference (ARC 1990) will be held March 18-21, 1990, at the Holiday Inn Crowne Plaza in Arlington, Virginia, only 1/2 mile from National Airport and three blocks from Metro. ARC 1990 will comprise a mix of topics such as reconciling foreign trade estimates between countries, disclosure avoidance, imputation methodology, behavioral research on the census undercount and more. For further information contact Ms. Maxine Anderson-Brown, ARC Conference Coordinator, Office of the Director, Bureau of the Census, Washington, D.C. 20233 Phone (302) 763 1150

The Association of Public Data Users (APDU) announced its 1989 annual conference will be held October 23, 24 and 25, at the Ramada Renaissance Hotel, Washington, D.C. The program will include sessions on developments in the Federal systatcal system, the interplay of protecting confidentiality versus public access, the new Census Bureau TIGER mapping system, and use of the Current Population Survey. For more information contact, the Association of Public Data Users, 87 Prospect Avenue, Princeton, NJ 08544 or phone (609) 452 6052.

CANDIDATES FOR SDA PRESIDENT AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS ANNOUNCED

The slate for SDA elections in October has been decided. Running for President are Issac Eberstein of Florida State University and Barbara Foley Wilson of the National Center for Health Statistics. Candidates for the Board of Directors are Richard Rodgers of the University of Colorado and Judith Waldrop of American Demographics magazine. Ballot will be mailed out shortly, and the election results will be announced at the SDA annual meeting in Durham.
